

Laura Ingalls Wilder Medal

(Association for Library Service to Children, ALA)

(Since 1954)

Administered by the Association for Library Service to Children, the Award honors an author or illustrator whose books are published in the U.S. and have made a substantial and lasting contribution to literature for children. The award was given every five years between 1960 and 1980; it was given every three years from 1980 to 2001. Started from 2001, it has been awarded every two years.
